

2007 Chamber Christmas Ornament Celebrates 50th Anniversary

The 2007 Napoleon/Henry County Chamber Christmas ornament has been unveiled. The ornament celebrates the 50th Anniversary of soup production at the Napoleon Campbell Soup plant.

We're proud to be able to offer this piece of Henry County history. It's a celebration and also a salute to everyone who has played a part in the success of the largest company in Henry County over the last five decades.

The ornament will be in stock beginning in early October and will sell for $9 plus tax. That's the same price as the 2006 ornament. Supplies are limited, so plan on getting your ornament early. The ornaments will be available at the Chamber office in Historic Downtown Napoleon.

Don't forget – we still have ornaments from the past available. They make great gifts for your Christmas list. Our past ornaments that are still available are as follows:

More National Attention on Henry County and ProTeam Corvettes

Terry Michaelis, president of ProTeam Classic Corvette Collection and Sales, announced that its Star Spangled Collection - a patriotic trio of 1954 Corvettes - has sold as one lot for $353,700 with the Juice at the Kruse Fall Labor Day Auction.

The Star Spangled Collection, featuring one red, one white and one blue first generation Corvette, spent nearly 20 minutes on the Kruse auction block, drawing attention and excitement from the crowd.

"I spent 18 months acquiring these vehicles to be certain I was offering the best collection of Corvettes that I could. It was great to see the Star Spangled Collection in the spotlight," said Michaelis.

Each Corvette has the Blue Flame Six cylinder engine and boasts numerous awards.

"The Corvette is as American as apple pie and auctioning our red, white and blue collection was the perfect homage to this notable icon," said Michaelis.

For those who missed the live auction of the Star Spangled Collection, Masters Entertainment filmed the entire process and will air the feature segment on the popular ESPN2 program "Bidding Wars" next year. Another chance for a local business to hit the national air.
